Present Simple Tense:

Form:

(Affirmative) ⇒ Present simple is the base(first) form of the verb, but this Verb changes with (He..She..It). We must put -S at the end of the verb.

- I listen to music at night.                      - He listens to music at night.
- They write their homework.                      - Sarah writes her homework.

⇒ When the verb ends with -sh,-ch,-x ,-o ,-z ,-ss and we have he/she/It, we must add -es to the verb.

- watch → watches                      go → goes.

⇒ When the verb ends with a consonant + -y and we have he/she/it, we drop the -y and add -ies to the verb.

- study → studies                      - cry → cries

Usage:

-We use Present Simple Tense to talk about:

⊙ Habits or daily routines:

- e.g: - I eat an apple every morning.                      -They wake up at 7:00 o'clock.
- We visit our grandma every Friday.

⊙ Facts or permanent states:

- e.g: - The sun rises every day.
- Children go to school.

⊙ Fixed timetables:

- e.g: - The P.E session starts at 10:15.
- The train leaves at 8 P.m.

Time expressions:

always – usually – often – sometimes – hardly – rarely – never- On Friday..., once, twice, every ....., in summer.

- I travel to Aswan once a year.

(Negative) ➡ We use the present simple with (do not = don't) or (does not = doesn't) before the verb to say that an action doesn't happen or a person doesn't do an action.

I – We – You – They ➡ don't      He – she – It ➡ doesn't

They don't like watching TV.

Note: When we use doesn't with, he/ she / it as mentioned, we must drop the addition.

e.g: - Zeina reads a story every week. – Zeina doesn't read a story every week.

(Question) ➡ To form a question with the present simple we put Do or Does at the beginning of the question. When we use Does we don't put –s, -es, -ies to the end of the verb.

e.g.: Do you work at the weekends?

Yes, I do.      – No, I don't.

e.g.: Does Liza listen to music in the morning

– Yes, she does.      – No, she doesn't.

Adverbs of frequency

Adverbs of frequency are used to show how often something happens.

Some adverbs of frequency are (always 100% - usually 80% - often 70% - sometimes 50% - never 0%)

⊙ Adverbs of frequency go after v. to be.

e.g: - Mr. Adham is always on time.

- They are usually on the beach in the afternoon.

⊙ Adverbs of frequency go before any other verbs. (The main verbs)

e.g: - I usually help my mother in the housework.

- Ali often gets up at 7 o'clock.

Present Perfect tense:

Form:

- We form the present perfect with have / has and the past participle of the main verb.

e.g.: They have cooked a big turkey.

He has played chess with his grandpa.

- Regular verbs form the past participle with the ending -ed.

e.g.: wash → washed                      tidy → tidied

- Irregular verbs do not form the past participle using any particular rule.

e.g.: go → gone                              see → seen

❖ Usage:

- We use the present perfect simple to talk about ✓ experiences:

- My dad has flown in a helicopter.

✓ Have just finished.

e.g.: I've just finished my homework. Can I watch TV now?

✓ Action happened in the past but we don't say exactly when.

e.g.: The headmaster has been very busy with his teachers.

✓ with never to say we don't have a particular experience.

We have never travelled on a boat.

Note:

We use have been when someone went somewhere and has returned. We use have gone when someone went somewhere and has not returned yet.

Time expression: Already – just-ever -never -yet.

Negative: we put (not) after has or have. E.g., I have not done my homework.

Past Simple Tense:

Form:

The verb changes when we have, He / She /It/ They/ We/ You/ I. We must put –ed at the end of the verb.

e.g. I cleaned the house yesterday.

If the verb end with (e) we add (d) at the end of the verb.

e.g. She danced

When the verb ends in a consonant + –y, we drop the –y and we add –ied to the verb.

e.g. Juliana studied English last night.

When the verb ends in a vowel + –y, we don't drop the –y and we add –ed to the verb.

e.g. We played basketball.

If there is a vowel before the last letter, we double the last letter of the verb and we add –ed to the verb.

e.g. Adel travelled to Alex.

Usage:

We use the past simple to talk about:

a) Something that started and finished in the past, often with a definite time expression. e.g.: Juliana took the train to London this morning.

b) Situations or states that were true in the past but are not true now.

e.g.: The Smiths lived in Africa for a long time.

c) Past habits, things that we did regularly in the past.

e.g.: We went to the beach every day and collected shells.

d) Things that happened one after the other in the past.

e.g.: Carl parked the car, got out and shut the door.

Time expressions:

last day / night / week / month / year.

Yesterday.

Two days / a month / a year ago.

in October / 2007

Negative:

We use the Past Simple with didn't (did not) before the verb to say that an action didn't happen. When we use didn't, we don't put -d, -ed or -ied at the end of the verb e.g. He didn't play the piano.

e.g. They didn't watch TV at school.

Question:

To form a question with the Past Simple we put Did at the beginning of the question. When we use did, we don't put -d, -ed or -ied at the end of the verb. We give short answers with Yes or No, the subject and did/did or didn't.

e.g. Did you work yesterday?

Yes, I did. / No, I didn't.

e.g. Did Peter listen to music last night?

Yes, he did. / No, he didn't.

➤ In case of irregular verbs, we use the past form of the verb.

➤ We don't add- ed to the irregular verbs, but we have to memorize them.

go —→ went drink —→ drank

buy —→ bought eat —→ ate take —→ took see —→ saw come —→ came give —→ gave

PARTS OF SPEECH

Parts of speech are nouns, pronouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs, prepositions, and conjunctions.

1. NOUNS: (A noun is the name of a person, place or thing)

Examples:

Sarah, lady, cat, New York, Canada, room, school, football

A noun can be a subject or object.

Example sentences:

People like to go to the beach.

Emma passed the test.

2. PRONOUNS: (a pronoun is a word that is used instead of a noun.)

For example, you could say, "Lisa is a nice girl."

Then you could replace the noun "Lisa" with the word "She" and get the following sentence: "She is a nice girl."

"She" is a pronoun.

Examples:

I, he, it, we, them, us, mine, itself.

Examples:

He doesn't want go with them.

Would they help us?

His house is bigger than ours.

Who is she?

3. VERBS: (a verb expresses action or state)

Ex. The cat jumped very high.

He is happy.

NOTE: To make negative OR question:

There must be two verbs in the sentence:

helping verb + not and a main verb.

EX. The cat didn't jump very high. (didn't = helping verb, jump = main verb)

Did the cat jump very high?

(Did = helping verb, jump = main verb)

EXCEPT: for verb to be it can make negative and question alone:

Ex. He is my friend.

He isn't my friend. (Negative form)

Is he your friend? (Question form)

4. ADJECTIVES:

An adjective is a word that describes a noun or pronoun.

Examples:

Big, pretty, expensive, green, round, French, loud, quick, fat.

Examples:

He has big blue eyes.

Some adjectives ending with ly (friendly _ lovely )

Max is a very friendly dog.

That is a lovely dress you are wearing!

5. ADVERBS:

An adverb is a word that describes or gives more information about a verb, an adjective or another adverb.

An adverb can describe a verb: She runs quickly.

An adverb can describe an adjective: She is so beautiful.

An adverb can describe another adverb: She drives very rarely..

In many cases (but not always) adverbs have the following Form:

Adjective + "-ly"

Examples:

Quick + ly = quickly    Strange + ly = strangely

Dead + ly = deadly        Sudden + ly = suddenly

Clever + ly = cleverly    Brave + ly = bravely

When an adjective ends with "y" replace the "y" with an "i":

Happy + ly = happi + ly = happily

However, there are many adverbs that do not end in "-ly"

Fast, very, hard, too, well, never, sometimes

6. PREPOSITIONS:

On, in, at, by, under, above, beside, to, out, from, for.

Examples:

I sat on the floor.

Let's go to the house.

We will meet at four o'clock.

Have a look under the couch.

This letter is for you.

7.The Conjunctions (conj.)

A conjunction is used as a way of joining two or more ideas or words together

Ex and, but, .. after, ..because..

•My friend and I are going outside.

•I will go to the shop but not before I have had something to eat.

After she had learned to drive, Alice felt more independent.

If he arrives on time, I will see him.
